

Nomination for Standing Committee

Robert Schiesler has served as pastor of St. Mark's in Grand Rapids since 2007. He brings a wide spectrum of experience to diocesan office, having served in various capacities including diocesan dean (Michigan); Vice President of Executive Council (Newark); and President of the Standing Committee (Delaware). In parish ministry, he is committed to parish development that is grounded in mission clarity, justice building investment and joyful worship in the Lord Christ. As we face challenge in the diocese, so can we embrace opportunity in building up vibrant and healthy congregations and he will bring that commitment to ministry in God's call to mission in our diocese.
