

David Brower

Nominee for General Convention Deputy

David Brower has served as a parish priest in five different dioceses and has held leadership positions in many of them. These include executive council, commission on ministry, and regional Dean. He has been elected once as General Convention Deputy, and twice as alternate.