Born and raised Roman Catholic in Sturgis, MI, I attended Holy Angels Church and was received into the Episcopal Church, Diocese of New York in 1978. Upon moving to Kalamazoo in 1980, my family and I became members of St. Martin of Tours shortly thereafter. I have been active lay leader serving in a number of roles. I received a BA and MA from the University of Michigan and completed all but a dissertation in Human Behavior and Social Policy from New York University. I am a retired Human Resources Manager of Consumers Energy and have taught in the Detroit Public Schools, as well as NYU, City University of New York and the University of Kentucky. I presently teach part-time in the Kalamazoo Adult Education Program. I am the mother of 4, grandmother of 3, widowed in 2002.
