

The Western Michigan University Department of Comparative Religion

in cooperation with
Lutheran-Episcopal Campus Ministries, Rumi Club, The Muslim Student Association, The Wesley Foundation of Kalamazoo, and United Campus Ministries
presents

Religious Perspectives

an annual multi-faith lecture series promoting education, tolerance and understanding

2011-2012

ISLAM

Representatives of distinct perspectives within the faith tradition will give insight into their own faith and how it impacts their life in society

First talk A Sunni Perspective

Shaykh Sharif Sahibzada
Minister of Religion in the Mosque of Grand Rapids
Director of the Islamic Center of West Michigan

Friday, October 14, 2011
7 p.m.

The Fetzer Center on WMU's Campus

All are welcome and encouraged to attend!

further talks planned for Shia, Sufi and convert perspectives

For more information contact Pastor David Louder at dlouder@lccm-wmu.org or 269-743-4287
or visit www.religiousperspectives.org

The Western Michigan University Department of Comparative Religion

in cooperation with
Lutheran-Episcopal Campus Ministries, Rumi Club, The Muslim Student Association, The Wesley Foundation of Kalamazoo, and United Campus Ministries
presents

Religious Perspectives

an annual multi-faith lecture series
promoting education, tolerance and understanding

2011-2012

ISLAM

Representatives of distinct perspectives within the faith tradition
will give insight into their own faith and how it impacts their life in society

First talk A Sunni Perspective

Shaykh Sharif Sahibzada
Minister of Religion in the Mosque of Grand Rapids
Director of the Islamic Center of West Michigan

Friday, October 14, 2011
7 p.m.

The Fetzer Center on WMU's Campus

All are welcome and encouraged to attend!

further talks planned for Shia, Sufi and convert perspectives

For more information contact Pastor David Louder at dlouder@lccm-wmu.org or 269-743-4287
or visit www.religiousperspectives.org