Options Available

Deanery Delegate: Each deanery must choose one delegate and one alternate.

All names must be submitted to the Gennie Callard by January 31, 2008 (so they can receive all pre-convention mailings).

Please make your decisions in your deanery meetings before this date. If this is not possible, contact Gennie Callard.

At large Delegate: There are five delegates and five alternates that represent the diocese as a whole. If you are interested, please send in a brief biography along with your date of birth and name of parish to Gennie Callard.

At Convention

Delegates' fees will be paid for by the diocesan youth ministry budget. Alternates must be paid for by the deaneries, parishes or individuals. Financial assistance through the Diocese is available upon request.

Delegates and alternates will be under the supervision of the Youth Ministry department of the Diocese. They stay in rooms assigned by the Diocese and sit at the Youth Delegate table on Convention floor.
